

Let's work together
to keep our community safe!

- Please follow the designated path, as outlined on this map.
- Visitors that are not feeling well or have a temperature should not visit the zoo.
- Admission: Credit/debit cards are preferred.
- Zoo capacity will be regulated to ensure safe social distancing. There may be delays in admission.
- Groups shall be no larger than 10 people.
- All groups are required to keep 6 feet of separation between other groups at the zoo.
- Face coverings are required (3+) while visiting the zoo. (Bandana, scarf, home-made masks, etc.)
- The cafe is open with a limited menu.
- The Discovery Room, EcoCenter, World of Color and Islands of Life will be closed for now.
- Gift items can be purchased from two outside kiosks areas, as noted on the map. The Gift Shop is closed.
- Select restrooms/drinking fountains are open. Please use the facilities one group at a time.

If you see someone being unsafe, please tell a zoo staff member. If you are seen not doing your part to keep our animals, staff and guests, you will be asked to leave.

Admission to the Pueblo Zoo is contingent on adherence to the rules. Pueblo Zoo may eject a guest for any reason including violation of Zoo rules, and safety measures required as a precaution against COVID-19. This includes, but is not limited to, wearing a face-covering (mask), remaining within your defined group, and maintaining 6 feet of social distance between groups.
